Our Rector

Jonathan Brennan became rector of Elmete Trinity Benefice (comprising the churches of All Saints', Barwick-in-Elmet; St Philip's, Scholes and St Peter's, Thorner) in September 2023.

Before training for the priesthood, Jonathan worked for over 25 years at a firm which provided financial services to solicitors, eventually becoming the chief executive. He was ordained in 2020, and served his curacy at St Mary's in Garforth.

Jonathan is married to Diane and they have two grown-up children.

HERITAGE OPEN DAY

Do you know where the Gascoigne window is?

And who were the Gascoignes?

Local historians Pauline and Ann will be able to answer all your questions.
